Inion of Methodist Protestant and Wesleyan Methodists.

At the Methodist Protestant Convention now in session at Springfield, Ohio, a compunication was received in regard to a union with the Wesleyan Methodists, and the committee to which it was referred reported the following resolution: Resolved, That this convention appoint a committee of five to fraternise and correspool with a like committee represented here by our esteemed brother, S. Prindle, of the Wesleyan Methodist connection, for the laudable and desirable objects of obtaining a more intimate union and a more general, and effective co-operation between the two sister branches of our common Sion, and for the sltimate purpose, if possible, of becoming

I see that the Corporation of Washington, may, probably, kindly invite the Corporation of Alexandria to assist it in bringing the Southern travel to the Washington Hotelsas a matter "necessary to the prosperity of both cities!" Of course, they think, Alexandria will play "second fiddle." As for a "permanent bridge" across the Potomac, no body has any objection to a "permanent bridge" for the use of the public. It is such s bridge as will just suit the "intereste" of Washington, to the farther injury of Alexandria, that is objected to-and which Alexandria will not aid. It is not worth while to "drive the last pail into the coffin." KING STREET.

[COMMUNICATED.

One of the trio referred to by the Alexandris correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer begs to say that he is just now too much engaged with the sports of the field, to reply to his communication; but be will merely add that all attempts to induce the people to believe that Mr. Letober is not the shoice of his party, won't do. Mr. Letcher is bound to be the neminee of the Petersburg Convention, and the next Governor.

WARRENTON ITEMS .- Mr. C. H. Tavener, from this place, has purchased the late Episcopal parsonage with the buildings known as from this city, on the Alexandria, Mount at a stand still, and unless the timber and MARSHALL & WARD, of Alexandria; or it off several lots to the north of it from back outthe old stage stables, together with twenty Vernon and Accotink Turnpike, containing ship trade revives, there cannot fail to be can be procured direct, through correspondence lets, while Cars can be loaded and discharged nine acres of land attached, for six thousand dollars, from Col. Jao. G. Beckham. This property, we consider very cheap. Mr. T. intends removing to town and will improve the property considerably. Mr. Jno. S. Armstrong recently sold the house on upper main street, known as the Methodist parson- ker, of this city, from his wife, Julia Ann the success of Douglas in Illinois, and a age, to Mrs. Menafee, for the sum of $1,600. Walker. The same gentlemen has also lately exchanged one of his new houses adjoining the parsonage, for the dwelling of Miss. Sallie Edmonds, situated on the same street. Mr. Armstrong, however, gives nine hundred dollars for his exchange. Mr. Jolly, a few days bridges across the Canal in Georgetown, so as tinues good. The thermometer, at 8 o'clock since, purchased the dwelling house mento accommodate a larger class of boats in this morning, indicated 22 degrees above above, from Mr. Armstrong, for the tioned sum of $3,500.

At the sale of Mr. Suddoth, near Liberty, last week, corn sold for five dellars and ninety-six cents a barrel, nine months credit, with interest from date. This is enormously high, and shows that the crop has been almost an entire failure. Flour which lately sold for six dollars and fifty cents is now bringing eight and a half. If the high prices continue through the winter, the poor must suffer severely.

Henry Carter esq., has again become the proprietor of the Warren Green Hotel. The little son of Mr. Rolly Cooper, who eo seriously injured himself, a short time since, is rapidly improving, and his physician is confident that he will recover. The little fellow had a terrible fall, and why he did not kill himself at once is a mystery to all .- Warrenton Whig.

LAND SALES IN FAIRFAX COUNTY .- The folsales of Real Estate in this County have been made within the past week or ten days:

Mr. Dan'l G. Roberts sold his Farm, containing 229 acres, to Mr. Elias Rees, of Muncy, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, for $30 per acre. Mr. Lindley M. Roberts sold his farm con-longing jointly to Messrs. D. G. and L. M. Roberts, was also purchased by Mr. Rees at $14 per acre. All of the above-named tracts are situated about 3 miles south of Centreville, and the prices at which they were sold amount in the aggregate to the snug sum of $15,014. Mr. Wesley Hutchison has also sold his small farm, near Centreville, containing 105 neighborhood, for $2,000. We learn likewise that our young friend.

Mr. Amos Fex, has disposed of his small tract of land without improvements, near Fox's Mill, in this county, and containing 60 lish the claims which are presented for these acres, to Mr. Lloyd Kidwell for $600 .- Fair- Burners:

A DEMOCRATIC MEETING, for the selection of delegates to the Petersburg Convention was held in Richmond on Wednesday evening according to appointment. It was largely attended, and after a long and interesting discussion, without coming to any decision, the meeting adjourned to Friday evening.

A meeting of the Democrate of Fairfax County was held at the Court House of that county on Monday. Ten delegates from each of the magisterial districts (6.) were appointed to represent the county in the Petersburg Convention. A resolution was adopted heartily endorsing the administration of James Buchanan as being emirently conservative and national, believing that he has been solely actuated by high principle and ardent leve of the Union.
